PRICE 5 CENTS

CULVER TO PETER QUINCE.

HILDRETH'S RECENT ACQUISITION MAKES A SHOW OF HIS SPEEDY OPPONENTS.

Royal Captive Reverses with Fashion Plate—Pirate Wins a Capitally Contested Steeplechase—Western Horses Succeed.

New York, September 17.—Racing at Gravesend went along undisturbed this afternoon under summerlike weather, with growing public confidence in the stability of the sport under present betting restrictions. The attendance keeps on getting better and larger as the meeting progresses. Fully 6,000 visitors came to the track today to see the promising card of six races, including the Culver Stakes. Nine horses, including some of the greatest turf luminaries of the year, were nominated overnight to start in the race. The field was depleted by withdrawals to six starters. The unbeaten Priscillian was the conspicuous absentee, and his defection robbed the race of much of its glory. There were many horsemen present who were of the opinion after seeing Peter Quince's ridiculously easy victory in the Culver that it was probably just as well for Priscillian's reputation that he remained in the barn instead of running the risk of having his unbroken sequence of victories checked by a probable defeat. The winner seemed eager to race and broke through the barrier frequently, running over a quarter of a mile in one of his false starts before he could be pulled up. In the end he got away last, but it was a mere moment before he had established a commanding lead which he increased or lessened at will as the race progressed. The finish found him three lengths and pulled to almost a standstill in front of King Cobalt, with August Belmont's two-year-old filly, Field Mouse, third after a gruelling finish with Ben Ban, to which she was making tremendous weight concessions. The race, 130 furlongs, could easily have been reduced by a full second had Peter Quince been called upon to extend himself.

Every starter in this race was adorned with the rosette of the blunders.

Mr. Hildreth was afterward congratulated on owning such a fast horse and California will see probably the fastest sprinter since Beateacher when Peter Quince strips for action in the Opening Handicap at Oaklawn.

The condensed history of the Culver Handicap is given below:

Run at full three-quarters first nine years. Walkover in 1891.

Royal Captive surprised race-goers by her decisive reversal of her previous running with Fashion Plate in the opening two-year-old dash. They were on the same footing in the market at about 21 to 1 each.

The race was a procession, the colored rider, H. Smith, riding badly on the nominal favorite. The steeplechase was the best-contested cross-country race seen this year. With one exception the entire field was closely grouped throughout the whole of the journey, and the condition of confidence backing, but just failed to get up. McKinney, who is far and away the best steeplechase jockey developed this season, rode Pirate to victory. Both Donohue and O'Brien lodged a claim of foul against the winner, which was disallowed. The spectators were kept in a long state of suspense before the original placings were confirmed. It was the report of W. R. Gilpin, the former expert gentleman jockey, who was acting as referee, that influenced the stewards in their decision.

Far West furnished an upset by winning the fourth race at one mile and a sixteenth and was incidentally the fastest horse in the clubhouse today and success in the saddle since his bad fall at Yonkers. Director, a western horse, easily captured the fifth.

Another western owned filly in Twilight Queen scored over fourteen juvenile opponents in the last. Blue Grass, which is the famous Blue Girl's first foal, finished a respectable fourth. Mr. Joyner, however, remarked before the race that she was not of much account.

Gretna Green appeared to budge for his preliminary warm-up without his accustomed calico pony attendant.

W. Williams, attorney for the men arrested for alleged violation of the anti-betting law at the recent Empire City meeting, appeared in the clubhouse today and motioned to transfer their cases to the grand jury at White Plains before Judge W. C. Platt of the County Court. Mr. Williams said that he has received assurances that this request would be granted.

Charles T. Henshall, who wants to ship a few horses to Toronto to race, has been engaged during the week in his efforts to get the horses to leave the car, and W. W. Darden may send Live Wire and Miss Crawford.

W. M. Wallace has been engaged by C. R. Ellison to train his horses during the fall and winter season. Roxie Angier appeared in the clubhouse today and offered to lay even money for $10,000 that Hughes would be defeated by Chandler, the Democratic nominee, for governor of the state of New York.

There were unconfirmed reports in circulation during the afternoon that Assistant District Attorney Elder's force of private detectives at the track included several well-known through the grandstand trying to make cash wagers with bookmakers for the purpose of using it as evidence. It was also said that the members of the Kings county grand jury were at the track making observations.

G. R. Tompkins announced at Gravesend that he had instructed his lawyers to bring action against the Brighton Beach Association to recover the amount of money won by his steeplechasers during the recent July meeting.

S. C. Hildreth received a telegram during the week from C. E. Durnell stating that several owners had applied to him for jockey Dugan's services for the coming winter and that he had declined the offer. It has been generally supposed that Durnell had relinquished all claim on Dugan when he transferred him to Harry Payne Whitney. Alcegon Dangerfield said that Whitney's contract gave him sole call on the lightweight rider. Trainer A. J. Joyner, however, believes that Durnell had an understanding with Whitney giving him the use of Dugan's services until April 1, 1909.

Minnie Fisher, the noted female jockey, was nearly killed when her mount, a horse belonging to James Farley, the strike-breaker, fell in a running race at the Madison Fair races, New York, yesterday. Miss Fisher's right arm was broken and her right hip fractured besides her being injured, it is thought, internally.

Mrs. Nancy Trevelyan, widow of Francis Trevelyan, the racing judge and turf writer, died at her home, Forest Lodge, Charlottesville, Va., today after a long illness.

Racing at the small local meetings and state fairs is becoming popular and the Jockey Club has given them all the power and approval necessary. They help the small owner considerably and also help to popularize the sport when it is carried on under Jockey Club rules. At the Brooklyn fair four running races are to be given each day, the last race every day being over hurdles. In the last Racing Calendar twenty associations were given permission to hold cross-country meetings by the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association.

SANTA ANITA STAKES $41,000 STRONG.

Five New Events Added to the List for the Coming Meeting at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., September 17.—The announcement of the stakes to be run at the Arcadia race track this winter shows that there will be five big money races this year that there were last winter. These have been named Glendora Handicap of $1,500; Hollywood and Alhambra of $2,500 each; Covina Selling Stakes and the Holland Cup of $1,500 each. The latter will be at two and one-quarter miles. The race known last year as the California Handicap will this year be called the Monrovia Handicap and the distance has been increased from one and one-sixteenth miles to one and one-eighth miles. The total of stake added money is $41,000.

HILDRETH AFTER THE WELSH BARGAINS.

New York, September 17.—Sam Hildreth has offered Tom Welsh $5,000 for the Golden Garter—Flora Mac and Watercress—Sweet two-year-olds which he bought at the Thomas sale last week for $1,500 and $300. Mr. Welsh would not sell. He wants $8,000 for the two youngsters. The son of Watercress and Sweet, a full brother to First Water, is the faster of Mr. Welsh's two-year-olds. He outfoots the Golden Garter colt in work. Both youngsters are very fast. They stopped a quarter for their new owner in 24 seconds a day or two ago. The Watercress—Sweet colt is a tough looking bay with black points. He does not resemble First Water in any respect. But he is a level-headed youngster and already he has endeared himself to the men of Welsh's stable.

Mars Cassidy and Jack Bennet, John Hynes and Howard Lewis dropped in at Welsh's stable after the races and the two youngsters were measured. The Golden Garter colt is a fraction of an inch under sixteen hands and he is as big as a two-year-old. Already he is a better furnished horse than his four-year-old full brother, Charles Edward. He has none of Charles Edward's legginess or lightness of barrel. The Watercress—Sweet colt is a big little horse. He is not more than fifteen hands two inches tall.

JOCKEY POWERS TO RIDE AT TORONTO.

Lexington, Ky., September 17.—Jockey Vincent Powers, accompanied by his manager, Louis Cahu, left here for Toronto this afternoon. Powers had been engaged to ride for Edward Corigan, Pat Dunne and T. C. McDowell at the local meeting, but J. F. Henry wired him a good offer and they consented to the going to Canada.

Pickers, Heide, Butler, Skirvin, Burton, Fogarty, Hofnagel, Walsh and Hicks are among the boys who will be in the saddle here.

Associate Judge Will Shelly got in last night after a hard early start in the morning. He was T. C. McDowell arrived with his string at midnight. They were delayed several hours in getting out of Canada.

Harding made the best work this morning, a mile in 1:42.5. W. T. Overton worked three-quarters in 1:15 for John Rodegast. T. M. Green ran five-eighths in 1:01.3. This colt will meet Jeff Bernstein in the second race at five and a half furlongs Saturday.

JUDGE HAMILTON TO PRESIDE AGAIN.

Los Angeles, Cal., September 17.—After several postponements the board of directors of the Los Angeles Racing Association got into the clubhouse today and appointed the following list of officials to act at the Santa Anita meeting for the season of 1908-9: Presiding Judge, A. W. Hamilton; assistant judge, Ed Cole; manager, Dr. J. S. Gardner; secretary, E. C. Smith; clerk, Skirvin, Burton, Fogarty, Hofnagel, Walsh and Hicks are among the boys who will be in the saddle here.

The meeting was free from any friction among the members of the board and the atmosphere which was the same as those of last year, were made without a dissenting voice. All the directors look forward to the best meeting ever given in southern California. The opening day will be November 14.

J. L. Holland, Barney Schreiber and George Rose, who were present at the meeting, will leave for the east at once.

WILL RACE AT NEW YORK NEXT YEAR.

New York, September 17.—One of the most prominent members of the Jockey Club declared at Gravesend today that there would be no racing next year over most of the local tracks, if not all, that are under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, no matter what the political conditions in the state. Before the winter has passed, he said, it will be known just what is permissible under the present anti-betting law and what is not, and plans will be laid to meet the situation exactly as it will confront the Jockey Club and the racing associations in 1909. The foremost lawyers in New York State say that the election of Wallace to the senate will be declared illegal by the courts, which will have the effect of making the Hart-Agnew law null and void.

MORRIS PARK A BALLOON TESTING GROUND.

New York, September 17.—The old Morris Park race course has been adopted as the club site and testing grounds of the Aeronautical Society, which announced that from today on monoplane and helicopter will spin along daily above the grass-grown track where the thoroughbreds struggled for victory. Some of the old quarters have been turned into machine and carpenter shops, where air craft of all sorts of queer designs are put together. Out in the field are two structures from which single rails are laid across the turf. This apparatus is to give a flying start to ambitious experimenters. The clubhouse has been converted into the home of the Aeronautical Society, and its walls are covered with photographs of airships and dirigible balloons.

DICK ROLLER'S PECULIAR MALADY.

Rome, Respess, in New York, thinks that there is small chance of his getting his crack two-year-old, Dick Roller, to the races again this fall. The Dick Welles colt is covered with a scaly eruption which does not seem to get better, although the colt has no fever and eats everything put before him. He has actually gained weight since the eruption appeared and Mr. Respess cannot believe that a youngster doing so well can be seriously in trouble.

POSTPONEMENT AT AUSTIN.

Because of heavy rain the racing at Austin, Texas, was declared off yesterday. New entries were made today. The meeting has been extended to next Wednesday.

Winner—Ch. f. by Golden Maxim—Mary Stuart (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Royal Captive, after early forward rush, drew out on the far turn and held sway to the end, showing sudden improvement. Petticoat, from a flying start, broke down on the far turn and was severely and badly beaten on the turn, then came again and was wearing the leader down at the end. Fashion Plate, pulled up repeatedly and badly ridden, could never get up and his race should be thrown out. Lady Hubbard, away and outpaced in the early running, finished with a rush. Killcreeper was well up throughout. Gautemotzin was gaining in the last quarter. Merry Knight showed early speed. Lady Selina was nearly left. Scratched—75497 Otogo, 100.

Overweights—Merry Knight, 3 pounds.

77087 SECOND RACE—About 2 1/2 Miles. Steeplechase. (64761-4:44-5-145.) $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $490.

Winner—B. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Gallop (trained by W. J. Hak).

Went to post at 2:53. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Pirate, skillfully and vigorously ridden, made a fast pace throughout and finished gamely. Caller, always within striking distance, pursued, was wearing the winner down slowly at the end. Grandpapa, in close company from the start and finished fast. Sandy Creeker, reserved in the rear early, went wide on the last turn and loomed up a persistent contender in the stretch and probably was short. Paprika was well up all the way. Ricus was never dangerous. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—71694 Double O, 142.

77088 THIRD RACE—About 3-4 Mile (165 feet short). (68934-1:082-5-122.) Culver Handicap. Net value to winner $1,400.

Winner—Ch. c. by Commando—Fair Vision (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Peter Quince broke fast, but striding fast, and drew out quickly and won all the way practically unattended. King Coal was in striking distance, but belated, rushed in. Field Mouse, in close quarters and making a wide stretch turn, finished with a fast, but belated, rush. Ben Ban, in close quarters and making a wide stretch turn, finished with a fast, but belated, rush. Baby Wolf, broke slowly on the inside in close quarters and was unable to get into serious contention until too late. Mund quit badly after close and strenuous pursuit of the winner. Poulainblue, sore and short, was never dangerous.

LEXINGTON AND TORONTO MEETINGS.

Present Scanty Volume of Racing To Be Greatly
Added to Saturday Afternoon.

This has been a lean week to the faithful followers of racing. In this month at this time five years ago racing was in progress at Gravesend, Brooklyn; Hawthorne, Chicago; Kenilworth Park, Buffalo; Delmar Park, St. Louis, and Highland Park, Detroit.
This week it has been Gravesend and the small meetings at Jamestown, Va., and Austin, Texas.
But some diversity and new interest will be introduced Saturday afternoon by the advent of the Toronto and Lexington fall meetings, both of which promise well. The Lexington meeting of seven days will be one of purses only, but many horses are already gathered at the Kentucky Association's track and the sport will not fail to present interesting features and keen contests.

The Toronto meeting, also one of seven racing days, is more pretentious, and ten closed stakes are to be disposed of in its course. Population considered, Toronto is a great racing place and the sport thrives exceedingly there. The money given is liberal. Saturday's program has the Toronto Autumn Cup, with $2,000 added, the September Steeplechase, with $1,000 added, and four purses of $500 each. It is no wonder horsemen take their racers to Toronto with cheerful anticipations. The Toronto Autumn Cup will be the main feature of Saturday's racing.
It is a dash of a mile and a quarter, and to give some idea of the good horses likely to run at the meeting the list of nominations is here given:

THE PREMIER CALIFORNIA STABLE.

President Williams Likely to Cut a Formidable Racing Figure Next Winter.

A number of years back, when he was Thomas H.
Williams, Jr., the present president of the California Jockey Club campaigned a stable of racers under the name of the Undine Stable and with Racine, Filtration, Don Fulano, Rinfax and other good ones, made quite an impression on the affairs of the turf east and west. About 1895 he disposed of his horses and for a number of years took no part in racing, other than the discharge of his duties as president of the California Jockey Club and of the Pacific Jockey Club. Two or three years back he decided to return to racing and, being a man who never does things by halves, has gradually accumulated a stable of formidable proportions in all departments. While his younger division is chiefly of the breeding of the Burns & Waterhouse stud farm, he has not hesitated about buying elsewhere and in Big Chief and Firestone owns two three-year-olds that cost him big sums and are well worth all he paid for them. As four-year-olds they are quite sure to take an important part in the rich stakes of the California Jockey Club to be run in January, February and March of next year.

In deciding to go into racing extensively, Mr.
Williams selected Dr. H. E. Rowell as his trainer.
Dr. Rowell is a man of vast experience with horses and with old white faced Satsuna was the Burns Handicap in 1898 and came within a point of winning it again with him in 1899, finishing second to the fast mare, Fleur de Lis. He is in all respects a capable trainer and with the big string to be in his care next year, will be called upon to display all of his resources. With Miller as heavyweight rider, and Gilbert and Sweet as lightweight, the stable is well equipped with riding talent, although there is some doubt about Miller. Increasing weight is telling on him to such an extent that it may incapacitate him from riding presently. Even if such proves to be the case, no more promising lightweight jockeys are in sight than Gilbert and Sweet.
All around, the Williams stable is one to be considered respectfully by all who keep track of California racing.

There are in the stable, now in charge of Dr. H.
E. Rowell, in New York, thirteen horses which will start for California within the next ten days. These horses are:

Bellwether, br. c. 3, by Woolthorpe—Favor Bells.
Big Bow, ch. g. 6, by Le Premier—Bess Owen.
Big Chief, ch. c. 3, by Pontiac—Madeline.
Blameless, ch. c. 2, by Fatherless—Aurie.
Crestion, b. c. 4, by Altamex—Miss Rowena.
El Picaro, br. c. 2, by Eddie Jones—Picnic.
Firestone, ch. c. 3, by Royal Flush III—Modreda.
Mi Derecho, b. c. 2, by Scintillant II—Mon Drot.
Prejudice, br. c. 4, by Galveston—Prejudice.
Prudent, blk. c. 2, by Colonel Wheeler—Prejudice.
Rosevale, b. f. 2, by Eddie Jones—Sweet Rose.
Rubia Granda, b. f. 2, by Greenan—The Great Ruby.
Tom Hayward, b. g. 2, by Cunard—Mamie G.
At Emeryville there are twelve horses now in training for the Williams stable. These are:

Alamox, ch. c. 4, by Altamex—Picnic.
Auto Oro, ch. c. 2, by Kinley Mack—La Palma.
Don Juan, br. c. 2, by Eddie Jones—Juanita II.
Matchtulla, ch. c. 2, by Matchless—Tulla Fonso.
Maximus, ch. c. 2, by Maxine—Sonoma.
Ramus, ch. h. 5, by Governor Parker—Emily S.
Rowella, ch. c. 4, by Altamex—Miss Rowena.
Rolling Boy, br. c. 2, by Altamex—Recreation.
Rosal, br. c. 4, by Eddie Jones—Rosewar.
Sonalto, b. g. 3, by Altamex—Sonoma.
Talentosa, b. h. 5, by Galveston—Tallada.
The Drake, ch. c. 2, by Altamex—Duckling.
Eleven yearlings have just been taken up for the early two-year-old racing of 1909 in Mr. Williams' colors. These are as follows:

Bay filly, by Maxine—Silver, by Magnet.
Bay filly, by Altamex—My Gypsy, by Forester.
Bay filly, by Colonel Wheeler—Sweet Rose, by Flambeau.
Bay colt, by Eddie Jones—Princess Zeika, by Rey
del Sieras.
Black colt, by Eddie Jones—Rowena, by Altamex.
Brown filly, by Altamex—Picnic, by Mr. Pickwick.
Brown colt, by Eddie Jones—Prejudice, by Loyalist.
Brown colt, by Maxine—Miss Rowena, by Midlothian.
Chestnut filly, by Maxine—Hoolou, by Joe Hooker.
Chestnut filly, by Maxine—Dangerous Maid, by St.
Leonards.
Chestnut colt, by Colonel Wheeler—Moresco, by St. Carlo.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

V. Powers, at Montreal, scored the honors last week, riding eleven winners, and is still at the head of the jockey list. E. Dugan, at Sheepshead Bay, added eight winners to his total for 1908, while G. Archibald, at Seattle, was home in front six times, displacing Fairbrother in the ranks of the thirty leaders. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1, to and including the racing of September 12, their percentages and races won the past week, are as follows:

MOST SUCCESSFUL STABLE AT SEATTLE.

William (Red) Walker's stable led all competitors at the Seattle meeting and has had a prosperous year with prospective further successes over the California tracks before this year comes to a close. The good colt, Stanley Fay, has been the principal contributor to the Walker stable earnings, but it contains a number of other useful bread-winners, its winnings to date being as follows:

AMERICAN OWNERS AND FRENCH RACING.

The continental correspondent of the London Sporting Life writes from Paris as follows:

"There is no more popular owner of race horses on the continent than Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, and he has established in France a stud farm, of which I have given you particulars on several occasions;
but he is not the first American that has borne off the honors of the Grand Prix. In 1881 Mr. J. R.
Keene carried all before him both in England and France with Foxhall, which is the best horse that has ever been sent to Europe from the other side of the Atlantic. Mr. Vanderbilt has not only brought broodmares from America to be mated with French stallions, but he has also been a liberal buyer at the yearling sales, and Sea Sick II. was one of his purchases. Northeast, the Grand Prix winner, was bred by himself. We are now promised the patronage and support of several other American owners, who have been driven from their native land by bigoted and short-sighted legislation.

"Mr. August Belmont has already acquired a large estate in Normandy, where he intends to establish a stud farm, and Mr. Duryea has taken a lease of the Haras du Gazon, formerly occupied by M. Ephrussi. Mr. T. P. Thorne, the owner of Magellan, hails from the United States, and there are several other Americans who are interested in horses running in France. If they are joined by Mr. Belmont and Mr. Duryea, the stars and stripes will flap for a strong contingent in the near future. All this will bring money into the country and will undoubtedly be good for the French turf."

MARYLAND JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

The Maryland Jockey Club has announced a list of stakes for its coming meeting, entries to which will close Thursday, October 1. With the announcement that the late New York dates will probably be rearranged so that the Maryland Jockey Club will have exclusive dates for its fall meeting of October 24 to November 7, these events gain importance. They are the Walden Stakes, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs; the Rennet Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs; the Country Club of Pimlico Stakes, for three-year-olds and over, at six furlongs;
the Baltimore Brewers' Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, one mile and seven yards; the Pimlico Autumn Steeplechase, about two and a half miles, and the Amateur Cup, one mile. All but the Amate-teur Cup have $800 added. The Cup has $500.

At the same time entries for stakes to be run at the spring meeting of 1909 will close. Both are for two-year-olds of next year, and are the Clabaugh
Memorial Cup, for foals of 1907, bred in Maryland;
Virginia and Pennsylvania and Pimlico Nursery Stakes for foals of 1907 generally. Both are dashes of four and a half furlongs, with $1,000 added.

F. P. D. and Wm. B., Chicago. Cannot inform you. Only secure what we publish.

W. H. F., Chicago. Cannot inform you what the average was. See reply to F. P. D.

R. C. L., Parkersburg, W. Va. According to announcements made Havana racing will begin December 1 and Tampa racing February 3.

W. W., Chicago. According to the wording of your statement John Carroll was to win as a condition antecedent to placing a wager on St. Valentine. If that was the case all that was due you was the show draw on John Carroll. If all turns on that point. If it had been any other horse, let, you would undoubtedly be entitled to a straight and place bet on St. Valentine.
